

Interview Questions:

1. Think about the publication from a 10,000 ft high bird's eye view. What is our greatest strength as a newspaper? What is our biggest weakness?
2. What are some changes you would like to implement next year to strengthen the overall quality of the publication?
3. Based on your experience on the newspaper staff this year, what do you feel is your greatest strength?
4. Based on your experience on the newspaper staff this year, what do you feel is your greatest weakness and how you will address this as a leader?
5. Which current student leader do you most closely identify with and why?
6. What are some ways in which you cope with deadlines, stress and chaos?
7. How will you work to ensure all team members are included and feel valued? How will you keep lines of communication open to have a highly effective leadership team? How will you work with more challenging personalities?
8. Talk about your time commitment and any competing conflicts.